

Date:

The French in the New World*

Question # 1: Who was Samuel Champlain?

Question # 2: What did Samuel Champlain and Henry IV, the king of France, want?

Question # 3: Where did they want to go once they had found the Northwest Passage? Why did it matter so much?

Question # 4: How many times did Samuel Champlain attempt to start a colony around the St. Lawrence River? How many times did he personally travel back and forth between France and the colonies?

Question # 5: Why was it so hard to convince French settlers to come to Kebec? ((You might consider reviewing longitude and latitude for your answer. Compare the latitude of Jamestown and Kebec.)

Date:

Henry Hudson's Quest*

Question # 1: Who was Henry Hudson?

Question # 2: Hudson attempted to find the Northwest Passage repeatedly. Briefly describe the routes of three of the trips:

a.

b.

c.

Question # 3: Every trip was different but they all ended in the same way. How did they end? Did Hudson find the Northwest Passage? (Look at a detailed map—is there a northwest passage?)

Question # 4: When did Hudson's crew decide they had had enough -when did they mutiny on his last voyage? What did they do to him?

Question # 5: Why was Henry Hudson so determined to find the Northwest Passage? How did he want to be remembered?