

Date:

Strangers and Saints in Plymouth

Question # 1: Who was William Bradford?

Question # 2 a: Who were the Puritans?

Question # 2 b: Why were they called Puritans?

Question # 3 a: Who were the Separatists?

Question # 3 b: Why were they called Separatists?

Question # 4 a: Who were the Strangers?

Question # 4 b: Why were they called Strangers?

Question # 5 a: Who were the Pilgrims?

Question # 5 b: Who named them Pilgrims?

Question # 6: You probably know this incredible story of courage and determination well and know all its major historical characters, because you read about them when you were younger—so here is something hard to think about: Many historians believe that Dorothy Bradford didn't just "fall off" the Mayflower and die. They believe she jumped off and committed suicide. Why do you think she would do that? (Something to think about—no need to write an answer.)

Date:

The Dutch in the New World*

Question # 1 a: Where was New England?

Question # 1 b: Where was New Spain?

Question # 1 c: Where was New Netherland?

Question # 1 d: Where was New Amsterdam?

Question # 2: How much did the Dutch colonists pay for Manhattan Island?

Question # 3: What did the Lenape make of that deal? Did they think they had sold the Island of Manhattan?

Question # 4: Who was Peter Stuyvesant and what was he supposed to do once he got to New Amsterdam?

Question # 5: Why is the city that the Dutch founded and called New Amsterdam now called New York?