

Date:

The Cry of Dolores*

Question # 1: What kind of ideas would Don Miguel Hidalgo have encountered in French books?

Question # 2: Why were the Spanish angry that Don Miguel had taught the Indians how to be more self sufficient by making pots, making silk, growing grapes, and making wine?

Question # 3: What did Don Miguel say in his famous speech called The Cry of Dolores?

Question # 4: Why did Don Miguel ask his army to retreat when they reached Mexico City?

Question # 5: What did the Spanish do so they could kill a priest like Don Miguel? Remember that because he was a priest, Don Miguel could not be executed by the Spanish army.

Question # 6: What does it mean to "defrock" a priest?

Date:

The Republic of Mexico*

Question # 1: After Don Miguel was executed, Jose Maria Morelos y Pavon became leader of the revolutionary army. He wrote up a new constitution. What did that constitution say?

Question # 2: After Morelos y Pavon was captured and executed, a new leader emerged. What was his name?

Question # 3: Iturbide joined forces with with Vincente Guerrero and together their armies defeated the Spanish. Who was Agustin I of Mexico?

Question # 4: Was Agustin I of Mexico a good king or a bad king? Why?

Question # 5: Who was Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna and what did he do?

Question # 6: The republican system of government of Mexico that was created after the end of the reign of Agustin I is based on the system of what country?